

New Zealanders have been very shamefully used by our countrymen; and where they are properly treated, there is no just ground to fear settling among them.

We pray that our Heavenly Master would guide you and our friends in all your deliberations. May the Holy Spirit keep alive in your hearts much love to the souls of the heathen. How honorable is our cause! How acceptable to our Lord even the desire to be instrumental of winning souls to Him, whether he may seem to prosper your labours or not!

We beg you to write by every opportunity your feelings and views on the objects before you. Make <sup>us</sup> as fully acquainted as you can with the character, and manners & of the natives - when you settle among them. And let us hear, from time to time,
