Rev. Sir

I received your letter dated Feb<sup>y</sup> 19. 1811. Since which period I hope you will have received one from me respecting the Boyde Jr. The missionaries are still at Parramatta where I intend them to remain till we know the real state of Mr. Teetand. Teetand, I ~~have~~ have three of his Country men have lived with me some time. He has made very great Progress in the Knowledge of Agriculture: and acquired that Knowledge from Dirt of Labour, and his own Observations with what Assistance I could give him. He was very industrious, and well disposed to every thing that was good. I have never known any man whose natural Disposition and Abilities I more esteemed. He has also attained to very considerable Knowledge in the Christian Religion, and revered it much. He paid the greatest Respect to the Sabbath Day, and to the last moment he was
