be done by the Society, as I explained fully to Macaterra their good intentions towards his Country, and that they were both able and willing to do all for them that they could desire. My colleagues are both well - and labouring for the great Cause of our common Lord. Present my respectful compliments to the Society, and assure them of my warmest wishes to support their views

I have the honor to be your most obed^t & humble servant

P.S. will you have the goodness to communicate this letter to Mr. Hoode as he is interested in the welfare of the New Zealanders
