Cook. my father will be very angry with me for King at home, & a Cook at Fort Jackson. I told him I would enquire into his complaint. we had much more interesting conversation. This morning I took them in my Chaise to see Quater's Farm, when they saw his wheat just ripe, his Peare trees &c. they were highly gratified. and in a few minutes I observed them marking a line across my Farm and cutting notches with a Knife in the stems of the trees. I enquired what they were doing - they told me they were marking out a Farm for Jouettee. Teetooa, that he would return to the Sea and the first opportunity, and bring one hundred men to work upon the Farm. I told him I would give him as much land as he liked. and he might begin to morrow. I think he will try what he can do - if he cannot return for assistance.
In going along in the Chaise one of them told me that English men swear much. that this was very bad - that he had never sworn an oath in his life -
