

acquisition to the cause of Christ in N.Z.
The New Zealanders who sailed with them appear to be much attached to I. J. P.

I feel confident that the Society will in this, and in all other things, be directed by Him who has hitherto so wonderfully blessed their Councils & Designs for his own glory. And here I cannot help offering you them my sincere congratulations on the pleasing prospect which you present itself, at New Zealand. The Labourers they have now sent to this remote part of our Lord's vineyard, will, I doubt not, soon convince the world, whose they are and whom they serve, by erecting the Church in New Zealand against which the powers of Hell shall not prevail.

I have the honor to be
Dear Sir
