

Robert Cartwright to Josiah Pratt

Sydney Feb<sup>y</sup> 26. 1820

Dear Sir

Being at a loss to know how to convey my letters & to my sons, who may have <sup>^left</sup> Cambridge before the arrival of the presents in England – I have taken the liberty of addressing a roll of papers for him, to your care; also a letter, which, being of some importance, I request you will have the goodness to let it be forwarded as soon as possible.

I presume you may have some some knowledge of my sons plan of residence. I have directed both the roll and the letter to [f] him at Queen's Rd Cambridge and have committed them to the care of M<sup>r</sup> Kermoide, who has other papers to deliver to you from our friend M<sup>r</sup> Marsden.

I need say nothing to you of affairs here – M<sup>r</sup> Marsden having written you so fully.

I hope you will pardon the liberty I have taken and believe me to be with great respect

Dear Sir

Your most obed<sup>t</sup>

Humble serv<sup>t</sup>

Rob<sup>t</sup> Cartwright

To The Rev<sup>d</sup> —
