the loss of the Brampton gave me more time to weigh all these subjects; and I finally resolved to take Mr Butler with me & his son should Mr Kendall refuse to go — tho' I said nothing to Mr B. on the subject until the time came —

Mr & Mrs Kemp are devoted to the work — food and raiment is all they require. They are much esteemed by the natives. They have suffered much uneasiness from Mr Butler's unkind behaviour towards them. Mr Kemp could not do what he wished. He would have had a School if it had been in his Power; but this he could not accomplish without the Sanction and aid of Mr B. which could not be obtained — They will now be relieved from all Restraint — and I have no doubt will go on well — —

Mr Shepherd is also a valuable missionary; has great Abilities for acquiring the native Language. He can now preach in the native Tongue, and travels thro' the different ~~[illegible]~~ Tribes for 20 miles or more to the westward. Mr Kemp and Shepherd are very much united.
