

They are careful of the Society's Property, and moderate -ate in all their Expectations. what I have seen of the Rev. Mr. Williams, and of Mr. & Mrs. Clarke I feel confident they will give satisfaction to the Society, and prove a blessing to the mission. I think from all that I have stated in my Journal, public letters and Documents, together with this Confidential Letter you will be able to form some clear Judgment of the State of New Zealand, and the mission - I have communicated all matters of Importance that I know, and perhaps you may think I have said too much. The Committee may also not approve of all that I have done - my Situation has been trying and difficult - I can say with truth, that if I have erred, I have not erred intentionally - my wish has been to approve myself to the Head of the Church, unto whom I must finally be accountable. I am persuaded that God will pour his divine blessings upon the Inhabitants of New Zealand, thro' what -ever Channel his wisdom may judge best to convey them. It is neither the conduct of the missionaries, unaided by the Energy of his Divine Spirit, that can break the Fetters of
