

distributed to the persons engaged in the Mission according to their wants, or otherwise disposed of to the best advantage for account of the Mission. And that all supplies for the Mission shall be also deposited in the Mission store house and from thence distributed in the same manner as above mentioned.

5 That rations of provisions according to the following scale shall be weekly issued from the Mission store by the Storekeeper to be appointed by the Superintendent. viz for every man 8^{lbs} flour - 5 lbs Salt pork - or 7^{lbs} fresh meat - 1^{lb} Sugar - 2 oz Tea & $\frac{1}{4}$ lb Soap. For every woman 5 lbs Flour - 4 lbs Salt Pork or 6 lbs fresh meat - 1 lb Sugar - 2 oz Tea - $\frac{1}{4}$ lb Soap, and for every child 4^{lbs} flour - 2 lb Salt Pork - or 3 lb fresh meat - $\frac{1}{2}$ lb Sugar - 1 oz Tea - 2 oz Soap & Weekly, respectively, or so much of other provisions as shall be equivalent thereto. The Superintendent, to be at liberty, to increase the ration if he shall find it necessary and prudent so to do. And all medical attention and medicine shall be supplied as well and sufficiently as means and circumstances will allow. -

6 For the preservation of peace order and good will It is ordered, that all disputes and differences between any person and persons engaged in or attached to this mission shall be examined and enquired into and determined by the Superintendent whose decision shall be binding and conclusive on the parties - allowing an appeal to the Agent at New South Wales, or the Committee in England to any party finding himself aggrieved by such decision

7 That the Superintendent shall once a month or oftner if he shall think fit convene a meeting of the men permanently engaged in this Mission, with whom he shall consult and advise upon all matters of importance in any wise concerning or affecting the Mission.

8 That The Reverend John Butler Superintendent of the Mission appointed by the Committee of the Society shall superintend direct order and manage all and every matter and thing whatsoever and of every kind nature and degree belonging to or affecting or concerning the Mission at New Zealand. That all and every Person engaged in and attached to the Mission shall be subject to and obey all his orders and directions according to their several offices trades and calling and shall