

which at present is almost impossible from<sup>13</sup> the many copies required.

With regard to a salary for myself. as I told you when in England. so is it still my intention not to have one. but in consequence of the removal of Mr Butler who is a Magistrate. and then being none besides him I shall be put to great inconvenience. from not being able to take my affidavit necessary for receiving my half pay. therefore until an opportunity should offer for my doing so. either by my visiting the Colony at any time. or by the appointment of some other person as Magistrate. I feel it will be necessary for my drawing occasionally upon the funds of the Society. tho I may afterwards liquidate it by sending you an order upon my Agent.

The cooking apparatus you provided for me has proved of very great use it has saved considerable labour and has been highly approved by all who have seen it. The Patients were greatly delighted with it.

Mr Fairbairn the Carpenter has expressed a desire to possess one. to be charged to his account. therefore should you think yourself at liberty to have one the same as mine forwarded for him. I shall myself feel particularly obliged. all extra charges had better be attached to the bill.

I may perhaps enclose a list of a few things required at this settlement.

In looking over the Suspension Register<sup>today</sup> for Aug. 22. there appears in my opinion and in that of several persons here too strong a representation in Mr Leys's letter. relating to Munghe it is true I know but little of the Man. but
