

single nail - and for a considerable time was obliged to sleep without either door or window - the natives never think of intruding themselves into the private apartments - Mr Marsden will furnish you with many interesting particulars - his trials & vexations have been great indeed - & his constabution has not been less - he will have much to encounter on his return to the Colony - but his strength of mind is great and will bear him up beyond them all.

We are much comforted by the late regulations - and begin to hope -

Remember us to my Dear Sir - we beseech you - for we stand in jeopardy very frequently not in person - but in mind - hitherto prayer meetings have been dispensed with - because it could not take place - without a great degree of rancour in the heart - backbitings and slanders and generally provoked - that these may not again appear I pray God.

You must let my Brother come here and help us - he will greatly strengthen our hands -
